

CTW Vocational Profile – Out of Work

The Vocational Profile for the Connect to Work programme is designed to help us understand your passions, strengths and needs and employment goals.

It will also allow to identify any challenges you face, so we can tailor support and identify opportunities that best suit your needs and goals. It is designed to be completed taking into consideration any opinions from friends, family and professionals who know you and your strengths. Family and friends will only be consulted with your consent.

Your honest responses will enable us to create a personalised plan that aligns with your strengths and aspirations. There are no right or wrong answers, this is about understanding what works best for you and how we can help you succeed in your work-related goals.

The data you provide will be protected and handled in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulation.

Managing Personal Information (Disclosure)

We ask these questions to understand how you would like us to support you, especially when it comes to sharing your personal or health-related information with your employer or colleagues.

Your preferences about disclosure play an important role in determining the type and level of support we can provide. For example, if you choose not to share any information, it may limit our ability to contact your employer on your behalf, request workplace adjustments, or advocate for you in the workplace.

Please be assured that your choices will always be respected. We will check in with you regularly to see if you want to update your preferences at any time.

Your information will be kept strictly confidential and only shared with the relevant staff involved in supporting your employment journey. You are not obligated to answer these questions, but being open about your preferences helps us provide the best possible support tailored to your needs.
